

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Persons living at a distance, or others unable to attend the Fair, can send orders to any of the above named Committee. The priced catalogue will enable collectors to do this, and they are assured that they will receive the full value of their money, as the Committee have endeavored not to go beyond the market value in the prices attached.

All the letters are in good order, and most of them very fine specimens; each one is put up with great care in a cover printed for the purpose. A large lot of miscellaneous autograph letters, documents and signatures are uncatalogued, and will be sold in lots to suit purchasers.

CIRCULAR OF THE COMMITTEES
ON RELICS, CURIOSITIES, AND AUTOGRAPHS.

The duty of collecting materials appropriate to this department, has been delegated to the undersigned Committees, and they would earnestly request all who may receive this Circular, to aid them in the object of their appointment.

The articles most desired by this department, comprise Memorials of the present Rebellion, and of the former wars of this country, or any memento of our conquests by Land or Water.

Under the head of RELICS, may be enumerated all objects connected with the public or private life of distinguished individuals of ancient and modern times; and with noted places, periods, and events, in the history of nations and of the world.

Donations of old and rare Books and Engravings; Portraits; Coins and Medals; Curiosities, both natural and artificial; odd pieces of old China; and Autograph Letters, or writings of persons remarkable in the various walks of Literature, Science, and Art, Military and Naval, of the Revolutionary or modern times; ALL are earnestly solicited, and will be received by any member of the Committees. Also, donations in money to be applied to this department.

A slip should accompany each article, stating whether it is for sale or exhibition, with the name of the donor or depositor legibly written.

It conveys a large part of what is now Bucks county, and is the original evidence of the first negotiation or treaty made on Penn's behalf with the Indians, by his Deputy William Markham, about three months before Penn's arrival in the Province. Upon the back of the deed is a memorandum of the formal "livery of seisin" made in pursuance thereof, and also a Deed of Confirmation, dated 1st of August, 1682, from certain Indian Chiefs, who were not parties to the former deed. The copy of this instrument contained upon pages 47, 48 and 49 of the first volume of the "Pennsylvania Archives," is apparently taken from an incomplete copy of this original—the endorsement of the livery of seisin, as well as the note of the signatures or "marks" of the Indian Sachems who were the grantors, being omitted. The document is upon parchment, neatly engrossed, and with the exception of a trifling injury by mice, is in perfect preservation. It is enclosed between plates of glass in a neat frame, so that both sides are open to inspection.

"THE PEN OR THE SWORD."

THE WASHINGTON ALBUM. A collection of sixteen original water color sketches of places associated with the name of Washington, with a large number of portraits and other engravings of the Father of his Country. Also, an original silhouette, a lock of his hair, an autograph letter, a page from the MS. of Spark's, Marshall's, and Irving's biography of Washington, and a reminiscence of Washington by Lossing, never before published. The illuminated coat of arms of Washington, with a title page, in colors. Splendidly bound in scarlet and white, with the arms of Washington and the American shield inlaid on the cover. This Album it is proposed to subscribe for, to present either to Edward Everett or General Grant. Any one forwarding one dollar, mentioning which of the candidates preferred, will have his or her name inscribed in a book, and given to the successful competitor. (Mrs. Thomas P. James.)
